MIGHTY ARTILLERY DUELS IN PROGRESS BETWEEN FRENCH AND GERMANS

Gradual Envelopment Of Great Coal Centre; Reims Still Under Fire

Currie's Lads Make Further Progress On Both Banks Souchez River—British Harassing Huns By Nightly Raids—Frequent Battles In Air—Artillery Active Between Soissons And Reims—Germans Drop 1,200 Shells On Much-Battered City Monday—Lively Fighting Between Russians And Austro-Germans.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
The Canadian soldiers are gradually hemming in the town of Lens, the centre of the great coal deposits in the department of Pas de Calais, and from which, prior to the war, more than five million tons of coal were annually exported. Successful raids carried out Sunday night by the Canadian corps gave them 400 yards of trenches in the woods at the western outskirts of the city, while Monday's operations brought them further progress along both banks of the Souchez river on a front of about a mile and a half southwest of the town.

The British troops are harassing the Germans at various points along the front held by them in Belgium and France with nightly raiding parties, which have been successful in killing numerous Germans and taking others prisoner.

British and German airmen continue to strive for supremacy in France and Belgium. Sunday witnessed the destruction of five German airplanes in battles of the air and another by anti-aircraft guns, while five others were sent to earth out of control. The British lost five machines during the operations.

Mighty artillery duels are still in progress on sectors of the salient between Soissons and Reims between the French and Germans. Apparently the Germans following their ill success of last week, when they suffered heavy casualties in attacks and gained only slight advantage, have ceased, for the moment at least, their infantry operations, as the latest French communications makes no mention of fresh thrusts by the crown prince. The badly battered town of Reims continues to be a target for German shells, 1,200 of them having been dropped there during Monday.

The fighting activity along the Russian front has again extended into the Carpathians around Kirilbaba, on the Bukovina frontier.

In Galicia between the Zlota Lipa and Narayuvka rivers and along the Upper Stripa the fighting between the Austro-Germans and Russians is described by Berlin as "lively."

The operations in the Austro-Italian theatre have again lost their intensity. The artillery duels have died down to almost nothing, while the infantry encounters are merely reconnaissances.

Successful Raids
London, June 25.—The British official statement says:

"Successful enterprises were undertaken by us on the night of June 24th on our front. Parties of our troops raided the enemy's trenches in the neighbourhood of Epehy, Bullecourt and Roux, and Looz and Hooge, killing many Germans and capturing several prisoners. In another raid east of Vermelles we captured fifteen prisoners and two trench-mortars. Our party remained over two hours in the enemy's trenches, blew up his dugouts and inflicted heavy casualties on his garrison.

STARS, PLANETS, "GOLD BRICKS," THEN COURT

Vancouver Magistrate Investigates An Amazing Story Of Alleged Fraud.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
VANCOUVER, B.C., June 25.—Magistrate Shaw decided to commit for trial in a higher court J. A. Muir and Harry Musculow, who are concerned in a very unusual case of what is alleged to be a conspiracy to defraud the hundreds of thousands of investors in their syndicate. The charge was laid by an investor, who put up five thousand dollars, but the majority of the 200 persons interested in the scheme had put up one hundred dollars each.

Musculow's story was that he had discovered gold diggings rich enough to pay the war debt a short distance north of Vancouver. He told his investors that when the stars were right and the planets occupied their proper juxtaposition he would take them out and each man would dig for himself and become fabulously rich. No date upon the calendar was even set when the claims' owners could get their ground and the sale of claims has been proceeding for two years.

The case reached a climax this morning when A. H. Cameron, a Cariboo placer owner, stood up and told the court that he had been deceived by Musculow. He said that three years ago Musculow had tried to sell him one or more claims. He recognized that it was a bunco game, he said, and accordingly he carefully wrote out a full account of the proposal made, against the day when he knew, he said, when the principals in the swindle, as he viewed it, would be arrested. So with the note book to refresh his memory he told his interesting story to the court today.

An extraordinary feature of the case is that a hundred or so of the investors crowd the court every day to vigorously applaud Musculow as he tells the story of his swindle, and the two or three members of the syndicate who, having become suspicious that all is not right, are pressing the charge. The great majority still believe Musculow's tale of astrology and astronomy.

Paris Journal Also Pays Compliment To New Commander-In-Chief.

LONDON, June 25.—(C.A.P.)—Le Journal of Paris, in a highly appreciative article on General Currie today, says he is a man who knows how to establish perfect co-ordination between all branches of the service. The London Star wittily remarks that "Canada's hot stuff is Currie."

LIBERALS ARE SUPREMACY CONFIDENT

Sask. Election Campaign Closes With Government Party Sanctions Of Success.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
REGINA, Sask., June 25.—The quietest election campaign Saskatchewan has ever had came to a close tonight and tomorrow the battle of the ballots takes place. Premier Martin wound up his tour of the province with a meeting on the north side, Regina, tonight. On the same section of the city was a Conservative rally, addressed by T. A. Anderson, a former member of the legislature.

The Liberals are supremely confident of the result, some of them going as far as to say the opposition will not be any stronger in the new house than it was in the old, when they had only seven seats.

DESTROYER COULD NOT FIND CREW OF BOAT SUBMARINED

American War Vessel Answers Call But No One In Sight.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
BASE OF THE AMERICAN FLOTILLA IN BRITISH WATERS, June 25.—One of the American destroyers in the patrol flotilla reported this morning that she was unable to find any trace of the 50 members of the crew of a British merchantman which was being attacked by a submarine when the American craft snatched the Britisher's wireless call from the air. Submarine shelling us," which was the first message the destroyer picked up.

The position showed the Britisher was ninety miles away, which meant a run of five hours through high seas for the destroyer. The American craft was just getting under full speed when her wireless sounded the second and final message. It read: "Abandoning ship."

Only floating wreckage greeted the American bluejackets when they reached the scene, but they patrolled the vicinity for two days in the hope of finding some survivors. Owing to the high seas it seems doubtful if any of the sunken vessel's crew were rescued by passing ships.

REFORM CLUB OF MONTREAL UPHOLDS CHIEF

Unanimously Adopts Resolution Endorsing Sir Wilfrid's Attitude On Issue.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
MONTREAL, June 25.—The Montreal Reform club (Liberal) at a meeting held tonight behind closed doors, unanimously adopted a resolution endorsing Sir Wilfrid Laurier's attitude on the conscription issue, according to announcement of the president after the meeting.

The resolution, as given out, opened with the assertion that Sir Wilfrid Borden had stated several times, and with emphasis, that he would not introduce conscription into Canada; and as this was contrary to the constitution, because the present parliament had no mandate to pass such a measure, and since so many seats were vacant, the Reform club unanimously decided to support the stand taken by Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

A reference was also made to the mobilization of the army rather than the conscription of men.

President Davis declared that the resolution had been adopted unanimously, and he spoke in his favor by Hon. Sidney Fisher, Hon. Walter Mitchell, provincial treasurer; A. Beaudry, M.L.A., and others.

LOCOMOTIVES THE NEED OF RUSSIA

Statement Of Railroad Minister With Mission To United States.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, June 25.—Locomotive, locomotive and still more locomotives," are the fundamental needs of Russia today, according to Professor Lomonosov, railroad minister with the Russian mission.

"Quite frankly I can say to you, our American friends," he said, "give us locomotives, and we shall give you military success."

Russia needs at once one thousand ten-wheel American locomotives to haul her idle cars in operation; another thousand with an appropriate number of cars to free the congested freight terminals; and another 850 annually.

The United States, the professor said, is Russia's hope in this huge program, and negotiations are now in progress which are most promising.

President Currie has been in Russia as an inheritance from our short-sighted old government," he said.

On the other hand the Conservatives have also an air of quiet confidence. They are hoping for the women's vote. It is the general opinion, however, according to street talk, that the Liberals will be returned with a somewhat reduced majority.

BERNSTORFF BEGGED FOR U.S. TO DELAY

Secret History Of Break With Germany Given Out.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, D.C., June 25.—The secret history of events leading up to the break with Germany by the United States is contained in a red, white and blue book, which has been issued by the National Press Bureau. "How the War Came to America" is believed to have been prepared under the direction of President Wilson.

Many passages appear to have been from his pen. It is made known for the first time that prior to his departure for Berlin Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, "begged that no irrevocable decision should be taken until he had had the last chance to make one final plea for peace to his sovereign."

"Because of this plea nothing that could be interpreted as an act of war was taken by the United States government until Bernstorff had arrived in Berlin and had had opportunity to see the Kaiser."

Speaking of this nation's pre-war attitude toward international questions, the pamphlet says: "On the eve of the present conflict our position toward other nations might have been summarized under three headings:

"The Monroe Doctrine—We had pledged ourselves to defend the new world from European aggression and we had by word and deed made it clear that we would not interfere in any European dispute."

"The freedom of the seas—in every naval conference our influence had been given in support of the principle that sea law, to be just and worthy of general respect, must be based on the consent of the governed."

"Arbitration—As we had secured peace at home by referring interstate disputes to a federal tribunal, we urged a similar settlement of international controversies. We had already won arbitration treaties, not only with great powers which might conceivably attack us, but even more freely with weaker neighbors, to show our intention of settling disputes by peaceful means."

In stating that the government used "every resource of diplomacy" to force the German government to accept its arbitration proposals, the pamphlet, also disclosed that the president had actually begun his peace note before the making of the German peace proposal.

BELGIAN ARMY BETTER EQUIPPED MORE DETERMINED

Occupies Now A Front Of 23 Miles With Eight Divisions.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, June 25.—The Belgian army is larger, better equipped and more determined today than it was at the beginning of the war, said Lieutenant-General Leclercq, military member of the Belgian mission, in an address tonight at the National Press Club.

The Belgian army now occupies a front of twenty-two miles in a corner of old Belgium, with eight divisions, including two of cavalry. The army is low and flat, requiring millions of sand bags for defense.

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 25.—Formation of the new Chinese ministry was reported to the Chinese legation in Peking despatches today, which said that the governmental reconstruction was proceeding rapidly.

Li Ching shi, who refused the premiership after Tuan Chi Jul had been dismissed from that position, called that he had now accepted the office in the belief that the rival factions were reconciled.

Legation officials believe the trouble in China is now over and that the situation will develop normally to the election of the new parliament as ordered by President Li. Until that time probably several months hence, the present administration will continue and China will not change her breach in relations with Germany to actual war.

ANOTHER STEP IN REFORM MOVEMENT MISSION EXPLAINS

Demand For Dissolution Of Duma And Council Of Empire.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, June 25.—The dissolution of the Duma and the council of empire, urged by the Pan-Russian conference of workmen and soldiers' representatives, was explained by members of the Russian mission here today as merely another step in the formation of a new government in Russia. It does not indicate the slightest hostility, it was said, between the council and the other parts of the government.

The council of the empire was even less representative than the Duma, it was said, as it was composed of appointees of the czar. Ever since the revolution most of the members have remained at home on their estates.

MINE DIRECTOR GIVEN POWER OVER PLANTS

Prices To Be Paid For Coal Or Coke Subject To His Approval.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
OTTAWA, June 25.—The order in council defining the duties and powers of W. H. Armstrong, of Vancouver, recently appointed director of coal operations for the mines in southwestern British Columbia and southwestern Alberta was laid upon the table in the commons today. The director of coal operations is required to make enquires respecting wages, hours of labor and other labor conditions at the mines and other matters affecting cost of production of coal and coke and the resumption of such production during the war and for three months after the cessation of hostilities.

The director is empowered with the approval of the governor in council to appoint such officers or agents as may be necessary to assist him in his work. For the purpose of investigation he is to have the status of a commissioner appointed under part one of the Enquiry's Act.

The final clause of the order in council provides that "any corporation, company or person guilty of an offense against these regulations shall be liable of summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding $5,000."

Non-compliance with the orders or directions of the director constitutes an offense. The minister of mines states in the belief of the minister of labor that "if the operators and miners are left to themselves production of coal will not be resumed within a reasonable time."

CALGARY, Alta., June 25.—Commissioner Armstrong met the miners' policy committee this afternoon and heard the miners' statement. The commissioner then informed the committee that the policy committee was willing to recommend the return of work among the miners, and that the miners' representatives were willing to accept the recommendations made by R. F. Green, M.P., and agreed to by the committee.

It is understood that he will make an attempt to settle the matter between the operators and miners before he endeavors to use the authority invested in him by the government. It is expected that some definite action will be taken within the next four days.

FARMER'S SON SHOT DEAD BY RECLUSE

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
WOODSTOCK, N.B., June 25.—Harold Wiley was shot and killed on his father's farm near Glasville, Carleton county, Saturday, and William Glenn, a neighbor, has been held in connection with the shooting.

Wiley, it is said, was making some temporary repairs to a line fence when Glenn, whose farm adjoined, came up and shot him dead with a rifle.

Glenn barricaded himself in his farm house for two hours and then gave himself up. Glenn has lived the life of a recluse for many years.

HON. A. G. MACKAY CRUSHES H. H. CRAWFORD IN JOINT DEBATE AT ATHABASCA

Meeting Climax Of Campaign Which Forecasts Sweeping Victory Of Liberal Candidate—South Side M.P.'s Only Speech Riddled By Eloquent Member For Northern Constituency Before He Gets Chance To Deliver It.

(Special to the Bulletin)
ATHABASCA, June 25.—The climax of the campaign in the deferred election in Athabasca was reached tonight in a joint meeting which was held in the Methodist church when Hon. A. G. Mackay, who is standing for re-election in the constituency in the Liberal interest, and H. H. Crawford, Conservative M.P. for Edmonton South, met in debate. The church was crowded to the limit, both sides having been well organized. Judging from the applause, the Liberals were in the majority, three to one.

For some reason best known to himself, Mr. Crawford imagined that his case against the government was unanswerable. When Mr. Mackay got through with him, Mr. Crawford's speech was a thing of shreds and patches. Just why Mr. Crawford should have chosen a man of Mr. Mackay's outstanding ability as a speaker to cross swords with can only be ascribed to egotism. That element in his make-up had been pretty thoroughly eliminated when the debate was over.

Has Only One Speech
Mr. Crawford has only one speech which he delivered without variations all through the campaign, and, to the limit of his ability as a platform speaker he delivered it well. It is a speech made up chiefly of an attack on the demonstration farms, the upkeep of automobiles in the provincial service, and the ministers' traveling expenses, handled in a somewhat picaresque way and punctuated with small insinuations of graft on very flimsy evidence.

Mackay spoke first for an hour. He was followed by Mr. Crawford for an hour and a half. Then Mr. Mackay closed the meeting with a platform speech of five minutes. He dealt in trenchant terms with a letter which had been sent to a soldier's widow, similar to the trick which was played in Edmonton last week. He dealt in trenchant terms with a letter which had been sent to a soldier's widow, similar to the trick which was played in Edmonton last week.

Several Lies Nailed
Mr. Mackay knew well that his opponent had only one set speech, and which he could not vary. So he proceeded to puncture it before the Edmonton man got the floor. He nailed several of the lies, especially in relation to figures dealing with the demonstration farms. Mr. Crawford had been telling the farmers that 241 cattle had died on the farms in two years, whereas the truth was that the number had included all younglings, such as new born pigs and lambs.

Domination Officials Busy
Considerable has been said in the Tory press about the alleged influx of government speakers and workers in this riding but nothing has been said concerning the fact that there are no less than 12 Dominion government officials at work in the Fort McMurray district. On tonight's train from the south there arrived Dr. Stanley, M.P.P. of High River; Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Calgary; and Mr. MacKinnon, of Edmonton.

WARM PRAISE FOR CANADIANS FROM
BR. COMMANDERS

Three Tunnelling Companies Complemented For Part Played At Messines.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, June 25.—(C.A.P.)—The three Canadian tunnelling companies who did such heavy work which contributed largely to the success of the Messines victory, have received the warmest congratulations from the British commanders. A despatch in reference to their work states:

"Not only did they render me valuable assistance in directing men into the tunnel system prior to the attack, but also when leaving for assembly trenches. Although there was a barrage on this trench, both officers and men stood outside directing men to their places, the result being that there was no confusion. Every man did his duty to the last, and at the right moment. They also rendered me excellent service in regard to water and food arrangements in the dugout system. The truth was that there was too much for them to do for me."

KANSAS OUT FOR BIG WHEAT CROP IN 1918

State-Wide Campaign To Plant 10,000,000 Acres In Fall.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
TOPEKA, Kan., June 25.—Plans for a blow against German autocracy were announced here today by Dr. Henry J. Waters, president of the Kansas State Agricultural College, and of the Kansas council of defense, in the form of a campaign to induce the planting of 10,000,000 acres of wheat in Kansas next fall. This acreage would be the largest in the history of the state.

The efforts will be carried on during July and August. Demonstration trains in charge of experts will run through the wheat producing sections of the state to inform the farmers as to the best methods of preparing the soil for seeding.

As a part of the campaign a survey of the seed wheat situation is being carried on at the present time and a report will be made at a meeting here on July 3 of the council of defense.

which had died, not in two years, but during the whole history of the farms, beginning with 1911.

Mr. Mackay exposed still another falsehood regarding the farms which appears in Mr. Crawford's printed speech which that gentleman has used in every riding, and in which he attacks the item of $7,131.60 which he declared was all spent in summer following in 1915. The Liberal candidate pointed out that page 22 of the report showed quite clearly that the amount covered the whole cost of fall ploughing on all seven farms for that year.

Speech Fell Flat
Mr. Crawford following devoted his hour and a half to repeating his criticism of the farms, of the automobiles and of the ministers' traveling expenses. His speech toward the end fell rather flat as many of the farmers present had, at one or two previous meetings heard exactly the same words without any variation or pause.

In his reply Mr. Mackay floored his opponent's arguments completely on every point. He showed conclusively that while Mr. Crawford had been pretending to be reading from the Stanley charges he had been reading from an Edmonton Journal editorial. The crowd went wild with delight as he smashed the lie home to Mr. Crawford.

Mackay In Fine Form
Mr. Mackay was in splendid form and was the complete master of the situation throughout. Mr. Fugl, the Conservative candidate in the constituency, who was in the crowd, said that while Mr. Mackay was not a candidate, he was a deep red when Mr. Mackay called attention to the fact that on previous occasions of the kind his opponent had come forward and given his reasons for being a candidate.

The Athabasca Liberals were greatly delighted with the outcome of the meeting and were openly proud of the marked contrast between the two speakers. It was certainly Mr. Mackay's day and tonight there is no question of his election on Wednesday by an increased majority.

Considerable has been said in the Tory press about the alleged influx of government speakers and workers in this riding but nothing has been said concerning the fact that there are no less than 12 Dominion government officials at work in the Fort McMurray district. On tonight's train from the south there arrived Dr. Stanley, M.P.P. of High River; Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Calgary; and Mr. MacKinnon, of Edmonton.

QUEBEC COULD SPARE QUOTA SEVIGNY SAYS

Two Members Favor Conscription And Two Support Referendum Proposal.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
OTTAWA, June 25.—The members favoring conscription and members favoring Sir Wilfrid Laurier's referendum proposal divided the time given over to the discussion of the military service bill in the House today. There were four speeches, two on each side of the question.

Sir Edward Kemp, minister of militia and Home Affairs, and members of the bill and its enforcement after parliament has disposed of it. William Pugsley and William German, of Welland, and Mr. Borden, of Quebec, should be consulted. Mr. German intimated that if the referendum amendment is defeated he will not stand in the way of the passage of the bill.

Sir Edward Kemp made a concise speech, dealt with the bill from the viewpoint of the administrator of the militia department. He urged that the measure should be passed because at this stage selective conscription would make it possible to secure the right men for the front and to assign them to the branches of the service most in need of reinforcements.

Both Mr. Pugsley and Mr. German expressed the fear that more harm than good would be done to the cause of the war should the enforcement of conscription be attempted before the consent of the people had been secured. Mr. German favored a referendum over a general election because other issues would be involved in an election contest.

Mr. Wilgny said that other people of Quebec could not what they liked but as for himself he proposed to accept the bill. He estimated that Quebec's share of the 100,000 men would be 25,000, and that these could be spared from the province without any harm being done.

Opposition members objected to a motion to have morning sittings commencing on Tuesday and it stood over for several days.

CANADA'S NEW WAR COMMANDER

LIEUT.-GENERAL SIR ARTHUR CURRIE, who succeeds General Byng in command of Canadian Army Corps.

Canadians' Brilliant Work Gains Portion Of Enemy Trenches

In Difficult Advance Towards Lens Men From Dominion Again Shine, Taking Enemy Outposts Southwest of Reservoir Hill — In the Recent Capture of Messines Ridge Canadian Tunnelling Companies Played Important Part.

Canadian Headquarters in France, June 25.—In a difficult advance towards Lens and amid a confused tangle of wrecked mines, our artillery destroyed miners' houses, railway embankments, and the flooded ground in the Souchez valley. A valuable bit of enemy front line trench, extending over four hundred yards north of the river, and east of the Bois de Riamont, was captured during the night by the Canadians and was firmly incorporated. The task set for the Canadians was to capture the enemy outposts to the southwest of Reservoir Hill. The attack on the outposts was evidently expected. The enemy scuttled, abandoning ground upon which machine gun fire was immediately turned by German guns located on the hill. This was speedily followed by heavy artillery fire, which continued during the night, and was especially severe in the vicinity of Lens electric station. The enemy's dugouts were searched but found to be empty.

Losing Confidence.
The enemy on this front appears no longer to have confidence in the ability of his infantry to oppose night attacks stoutly. Several raids last night in the region between Lens and La Basse showed that the German trenches were so lightly held that little resistance could be offered to the raiders.

In one case British troops remained half an hour in the enemy's positions destroying defenses. In a recent cable on the part taken by the Canadians in the work preparatory to the capture of Messines ridge, mention should have been made of the work of the tunnelling companies of the Dominion. During many weary months while Canadians above ground in the Ypres salient bore with fortitude the constant fire from the enemy guns behind the ridge, the Canadian miners far underground were driving mine shafts for the enemy's destruction.

Fine Work by Miners.
After our troops went to the Somme the work was continued. It is impossible to write in detail the work of the miners, but Canadians will learn with satisfaction that no small part of the mining operations that made possible the blowing up of the German lines on Messines ridge stands to the credit of Canada.

PREMIER CALLED AT PLUGGING INQUIRY

Investigation At Vancouver Into The Macdonald Bye-Election.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 25.—Premier Brewster spent most of today as a witness in the judicial inquiry being held into the charges of plugging made in connection with the by-election contest of February of last year, when M. A. MacDonald, until recently attorney-general, was elected. John Scott, who is now living in California, was the principal operator in that connection. Premier Brewster said today that he first became suspicious of Scott during the inquiry held last year by the former government, but Scott kept on declaring that he could explain everything. The premier said that he and MacDonald had been close friends and that he had felt rather chagrined at MacDonald in view of developments that had occurred.

ASSESSMENTS APPEALED TO
CITY COUNCILThirteen Applications To Come
Before Aldermen At Tuesday Night's Meeting.

There are thirteen appeals against assessments which will go before council on Tuesday night.

W. Humberstone appeals against the assessment of his property in West Glenora, the grounds being that the assessment is in excess of fair actual value, that there is gross over-valuation and that the assessment is carried out on the wrong principle.

G. T. Montgomery appeals against the assessment of his property at Westmount and Richmond Park; the Hon. J. M. Wilson appeals on the grounds of the assessment being out of proportion with other land in the vicinity, and another appeal is from the Baron Oakhill, who has land in Lauderdale.

The C.N.R. says that its assessment is illegal. J. McK. Dickson has given mere formal notice of appeal, and representatives of the British-Canadian Securities and the Ross Estate are appealing against the assessment of acreage.

The assessment of acreage on behalf of McNamara, Ltd., and the estate of Mrs. Ida McNamara; Alderman T. Bellamy says that his property has been put at an excessive valuation, and the Rev. Peres Oblata de Marie Immaculate du Nord Quest says that there is a gross over-valuation and that it has no speculative value. The estate assessment of the estate of J. C. LeBel, which comprises property in the Hudson's Bay reserve, has also been appealed against.

The C.N.R. are appealing against the assessment of their acreage, yards and terminals, which are assessed at $427,000 for school purposes, and the municipal assessment fixed by agreement at $35,000. The company asks that the school assessment shall be reduced from $427,000 to $350,000 and offer, if this is done, to settle arrears outstanding by the payment of $18,024.

The city commissioners, when sitting as a court of revision on assessments, recommended to council that this offer be accepted. The company have a suit against the city on account of the assessments.

PIN THIS UPON
WIFE'S DRESSERWarns women against cutting corns and says they lift right out.

Because style decrees that women crowd and buckle up their tender toes in high heel footwear they suffer from corns, then they cut and trim at these painful pests which merely makes the corn grow hard. This suicidal habit may cause lockjaw and women are warned to stop it.

A few drops of a drug called freesoone applied directly upon a sore corn gives quick relief and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out without pain. Ask the drug store man for a quarter of an ounce of freesoone, which costs very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

This drug is gummy but it dries in a moment and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

"A RELIGION OF RIGHT THINKING"Lecture On Christian Science By Clarence W. Chadwick In Empire Theatre.

Before a large audience in the Empire Theatre last night Clarence W. Chadwick, C. S. B., member of the board of trusteeship of the mother church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, lectured on "Christian Science: A Religion of Right Thinking."

Health and Disease
Christian Scientists are a great deal more interested in the subject of health than in disease, he said. They have found that the right idea of health, when intelligent principles of humanity is far more contagious than the thought of disease. They do not believe in getting sick and then having to be cured. They have the knowledge of disease before learning how to be well. They have learned that health is the normal condition of God. One who is present with disease is a mistake of the human mind to be corrected by a right understanding of health as an attribute of God. One who is present with disease is a mistake of the human mind to be corrected by a right understanding of health as an attribute of God. One who is present with disease is a mistake of the human mind to be corrected by a right understanding of health as an attribute of God.

How Disease Is Dispersed
The absence of light, which we call darkness, is dispelled by the light. Just so with disease; it is also dispelled the moment the right idea of health is understood. The light of God as voiced to the world in Christian Science. This idea is the harbinger of health strength and happiness. It has no other source of disease or suffering to impart.

YOUNG GIRL WALKED
60 MILES TO CITYPicked up by Police and Placed in Children's Shelter For Protection

The case of a young girl, of foreign extraction, picked up by the police at Edmonton and placed in the care of the Children's Shelter for the protection of the city, is the subject of some caustic remarks by the lady probation officer who says: "Starting from home with her parents' consent, the girl walked all the way from a point six miles north of Edmonton to the city, and when she was given a lift by farmers and once in an automobile."

This means that the girl, alone and absolutely ignorant of what was before her, walked something like 60 miles in order to find employment in Edmonton. She had had hands but was saved from further evil by being rescued by the police.

BULGARS STARVE
WAR PRISONERSRoumanian Officers Refused to do Work Betraying Their Country

Roumanian Army Headquarters—June 24, via London, June 25—Official reports of the barbarous way the Roumanian prisoners of war were treated by the Bulgarians has raised deep indignation. After the fall of Turtukan the prisoners were driven to the interior of Bulgaria and obliged to work. Some days they practically had no food, but small slices of bread. As soon as they arrived at their destination they were made to dig trenches and take away their money and clothes were taken away and they had to go through the severe winter only half-clothed.

The Bulgarian authorities tried to force the officers to work with the soldiers repairing roads. When they protested they were beaten until blood flowed. But the most ignominious treatment was reserved for senior officers, several of whom were known as having worked on the general staff. As they refused to do the work demanded of them, saying they preferred to be killed rather than betray their country, they were locked in small cells and left days without food except a little bread and water.

HUNS HAVE STILL TO SHOW SUPERIORITYHindenburg Prevented Doing Anything But Support His Tottering Defences.

London, June 25.—Re-telling in the Times the story of Mesines, which ended the spring offensive, Col. Repington said: "The Hindenburg-Ludendorff combination was new to the west. No one was apt to fall there. We were solemnly lectured during the winter against the impudence of pitting our puny brains against those of the German leaders, but as the Allies on the west during this first round have captured 70,000 prisoners and nearly 500 guns and masses of trench mortars and machine guns and disposed of some 300,000 German fighters, we still await a manifestation of the military superiority of the German leaders of the hosts."

"Have we and have the French finished our offensive? We shall see what we have done. We and the French have dealt the German army heavy blows and captured immense booty in war material of all kinds. The great German reserve was reduced from 52 to 12 divisions for the purpose of local resistance, and an equivalent number of German divisions have been counted out of line for repairs. We have prevented Hindenburg doing anything but support his tottering defences."

The Daily Poem

BEGIN THE DAY WITH GOD.

From my couch I arose this morning,
In a sour, complaining mood;
Against my fellow creatures,
Not one of them was good.
Against my circumstances,
I thought it very hard,
That thou I toiled on bravely
I met with scant regard.
I felt myself forsaken,
Forgive me, Lord, by Thee;
Till suddenly an impulse came,
In prayer to bend my knee.
I yielded to the impulse,
My burden, lo, it vanished;
I found my best self there.

—Margaret Paterson.

Miss Nancy Bradley, a youthfu hostess of six years, entertained on Monday afternoon about a dozen of her playmates in the neighborhood of a "lovely party." The afternoon was just made for kiddies' games and gaiety, so bright and warm it was. There was a delicious supper, too, and the time wasn't nearly long enough for the fun planned for by the hostess and happy guests.

Armstrong; the famous "School for Scandal," characters, Lady Teazle, Mrs. A. L. Burt; Sir Peter Teazle, J. Adam.

With hardly standing room the Irish concert in the Great War Veterans' Association clubrooms was undoubtedly a great success, and of the series of six national concerts was the best attended and exceeded any previous entertainment in the collection for the hospital fund, the amount taken last night being about $60. Mrs. Dan J. Carey arranged for the artists who contributed a very enjoyable evening. Lynch's orchestra and a mixed quartette were very good. The soloists, Mrs. Carey, Mrs. McBride, Miss Lynch, Mrs. Fred Bowerman, Jesse Masters, David Jones and McCann all sang delightfully and in their happiest mood, receiving unstinted applause from an enthusiastic audience. Patrick Dunn, with a humorous recitation, was loudly applauded, and Daniel Carey in his three comic selections showed himself a clever interpreter of the humorous phase of Irish life, "bring down the house." A. U. G. Bury was an excellent chairman.

Mrs. Craig, Miss Humbert and Mrs. Carey efficiently supplied the complimentary refreshments. Irish touch was imparted to the proceedings by the spinning wheel, 20 years old, kindly loaned by Mrs. McBride, and the shillelagh, which, typical as it was, was not sufficient to keep order so effectively as enthusiastic as the audience.

Miss Helen R. Gardner, of South Bend, Ind., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fulton.

Place in a preserving kettle in layers as many pounds of sugar as of sound ripe berries, which have been washed, and when the juice is drawn out a little set it over the fire to cook; let cook twenty minutes after boiling begins. Put in berries into earthen or agate plates, cover each with a pane of glass to fit tightly over the top and place in the sun. Let stand two days, stirring two or three times each day. At the end of this time place in sterilized jars, seal and store them without reheating.

THE BRITISH PRECEDENT.

The British Parliament, we are told, reversed the traditional national policy of voluntary service and adopted conscription without consulting public opinion. True; but the British Parliament did not try to impose conscription in Ireland, for the reason that it was confronted there with a situation similar to that in Quebec. Is it proposed to exclude Quebec if conscription is adopted in Canada without reference to the public?

NOT EFFECTIVE.

The Amsterdam providers of favorable but not infallible news about conditions in Germany tell us the crops there are to be a failure. This seems to be the third German crop failure the Amsterdam prophets have foretold since the war began. Unless they make good this year they had better quit and take to the trenches. The enemy does not seem to be reduced to the desirable state of impotence by crop failures which exist only in their anticipations.

ONE ESTIMATE.

For three years the newspapers supporting one party in Canada have declared that the national war policy would be weakened, and not strengthened, if a coalition government were formed with Sir Wilfrid Laurier as a member. Now the same papers declare with equal unanimity that Sir Wilfrid is almost, if not quite, a traitor for refusing to "strengthen" the national war policy by joining a coalition government. Yet the public are supposed to swallow the pious disclaimer that there has been any attempt to work the war for the political benefit of the Conservative-Nationalist party! The Canadian public, it seems, are not supposed to know a thing when they see it.

THE FRUIT OF ENCOURAGEMENT

The Toronto Telegram, which the Journal tells us has gone "clean crazy" over the war, thinks it is a "despicable suggestion" that in accepting Nationalist support at the Federal elections of 1911 Sir Robert Borden made himself in any sense the "author of Quebec's unwillingness" to recruit men for the defence of Canada either by voluntary enlistment or by conscription.

Not the author, of course, but surely the aider and abettor of the seditious propaganda of which the unwillingness to enlist is the fruit. In 1911 Sir Robert smothered the Conservative party in Quebec to make room for the Nationalist faction. Conservative candidates were not allowed to run in opposition to Nationalist candidates. Nationalist candidates were backed and elected by the Conservative campaign funds. The Borden Government came into power by grace of Nationalist support in Parliament. Nationalist lieutenants were taken into the Government, and the patronage of Quebec was put, and still remains, at their disposal. Sir Robert having thus taught the seditious mongers that they could dominate the political situation—and hence the public policy—of the country by stirring up hostility to the idea of Canada participating in "Britain's wars," they are now trying to do it, naturally. By making Nationalism profitable Sir Robert made it formidable.

NO DEFAULT HERE.

Conscription should be applied where it is needed. It is not needed in Western Canada, the contingents from the western provinces having been supplied by voluntary enlistment, with thousands of men beside.

WHICH ARE THE SLACKER PROVINCES?

To make possible an intelligent understanding of just what the conscription bill proposes to do there should be an official announcement made of the number of enlistments in each province or military district in Canada, together with the number of men required from each district to make up the half million promised. In the western provinces there has certainly been no failure to supply the quotas asked for. The shortage of 80,000 men in the total required is a shortage due to the failure of all or some of the eastern provinces to supply their contingents. If the western provinces, after supplying their own quotas and many thousand men beside, are to be called upon to help make up this deficiency, they should be told just which of the provinces have been slackers and to what extent each has failed to do its "bit."

FOOD FOR THOUGHT.

The program approved by the city council on Saturday will effectually dispel any notion that the retrenchments and temporary loans effected during the past three years have solved the city's financial problem. These measures, it is made clear, were expedients only, designed to prevent an immediate shut-down of the civic services. The council have now faced squarely the larger problem of how the machinery is to be kept going for the next five years and how our debt obligations are to be met. For that they deserve a vote of thanks from the tax-payers. We have got to a place where to longer defer consideration of the real financial situation is neither wise nor perhaps possible. The measures which the council considered necessary to put the city "on its feet" financially are fortunately announced some months in advance of the civic elections. The tax-payers will therefore have time—and the measures proposed, certainly provide the inducement—to study the situation and the proposed remedies before the time comes to elect the council for next year. It is up to them to do some hard thinking between now and the first of December.

OTHERWISE WHAT?

It does not need any argument to show that the measures proposed by the city council for avoiding a financial catastrophe are "strong medicine." That is clear enough. That there will be objection, and very strong objection, to some of the measures is equally obvious. But the situation demands that something be done. Temporising is only putting off the unpleasant, at best, and we have seemingly come to the point where it can be put off no longer. A way of meeting our obligations must be found. The council have apparently given the situation a very careful study, and believe that the means proposed offer the easiest and most effective—perhaps the only possible—way of preventing an absolute breakdown of civic credit and a tie-up of the whole civic machinery. Certainly there is no reason to suppose that if an easier or more pleasant way could have been found to avoid disaster the council would not have taken it. The responsibility has therefore been shifted from the council to the tax-payers. It is for those who do not like the means proposed to show by what other means the city can be kept off the rocks.

LEGAL INQUIRIES

Legal questions will be answered in the columns of The Bulletin, after being submitted to The Bulletin's own legal representatives. Write on one side of the paper only. Be brief. Send stamped envelope for reply.

To The Bulletin Legal Department:

Kindly answer the following question: Can my stock be seized for taxes on my mother's homestead? She is living with me but does not perform her resident duties on my homestead. Can they make my brother, who is not of age, pay them?

Your stock cannot be seized for taxes owed by your mother, neither can the younger brother be made to pay. Taxes owed by any party have to be collected from that party alone.

Where's This Substitute?

From the London Daily Chronicle. Has it occurred to any of our numerous food controllers to look into the Toden Recipe for a substitute for flour. In the year 1801 there appears in the accounts of moneys advanced for public services from the civil list a grant of £500 to Thomas Toden, Esq., towards enabling him to prosecute a discovery made by him of a paste as substitute for wheat flour. Did the recipe ever materialize, and if so, what became of it?

ANSWERS

This department does not pretend to be infallible. It will endeavor, however, to answer questions sent to it by readers of The Bulletin to the best of its ability, reserving the right to ignore all that are trifling or of concern only to the questioner. To receive attention, every inquiry must bear the name and address of the questioner. This information is not wanted for publication, but as an evidence of good faith.

Red Cross Headquarters.

To The Bulletin: Can you tell me the name and address of the Red Cross Nurse headquarters in the province of Alberta? B. M. J. Write Red Cross, C. P. R. building, Jasper avenue, Edmonton.

Munitions.

To The Bulletin: (1) Are there any representatives from England in this country endeavoring to obtain men as munition workers? If so, how and where shall I address them.

(2) Where are the government munition works situated in this country and to whom should I apply for a position? ENGINEER.

(1) No. The traveling men from Switt & Co., Ames Holden, A. Macdonald Co., Roes, Hunt & Co., and other leading wholesale houses have been in the city during the last few days. They all express themselves highly satisfied with the business.

The fishing concerns are quite busy, and the hatches have fallen off a little during the last week the day's average is very satisfactory. The quality is excellent and nearly all big, heavy.

Whitefish are in the majority. It is understood that the Dominion government is making experiments in lesser Slave Lake to clean out the coarser fish, such as jackfish, suckers, the latter having no commercial value, also the large catfish, commonly called Marlin. This is done by baiting and nets, which enable the valuable fish to be thrown back into the water unhurt. It would be a great advantage if the operations of the fishing and fisheries department were extended to this lake. The taking out of suckers, especially, would be the greatest furtherance of conserving the life in the fish food for preference on spawn and destroy at one fee thousands of embryo fish.

The deferred election of the Athabasca district has brought through here quite a few election workers on their way north. The principal point of issue for this election, as far as the McMurrayites are concerned, is the railroad. They have our sympathy in this matter, because it means "to be or not to be" for the whole northern part of the Athabasca district. In fact of the war, in which the United States is now also involved, there have been steady inquiries from there as to the oil, gas, salt and asphalt resources of that part of the country, and requests for information regarding traveling and transportation facilities. Unless there is continuous railroad transportation into McMurray, business men of importance, and these will be the only kind of any use for the development of the Athabasca resources, cannot be expected to waste their valuable time in haphazard, rough traveling by pack train, or rough riding on teamsters' wagons, nor can they intelligently.

It is hard to believe. "What is it?" "That man actually asked for an upper berth in the sleeper."

Doing Well. "Is your boy getting along well in college?" "Fairly well. He's made two hits as a pinch batsman this spring."

LAC LA BICHE

The importance of Lac La Biche as a distributing centre for large and rapidly developing farming districts is becoming more accentuated all the time. It increases the business of merchants already long established here and brings new concerns to share in the extension of trade. Messrs. A. Elrube & Co. have recently opened up as general merchants, also agents for farming implements, while last week Messrs. Hamilton & Co. opened a new store on Main street.

Lac La Biche distributes to the prosperous farming communities of Piamondville, Bouvier, Jellicoe (formerly known as Lig Bay), Owl River, Grandin, and even as far as Normandeau and the Egg Lake district.

While the crops have been quite backward, the steady downpour of the last few days, and the subsequent warm sunshine, have improved conditions wonderfully and the gardens have come up like magic. The whole sale houses are quite awake to the mercantile importance of Lac La Biche, and their representatives make a point of calling regularly on the trade here.

Must Win or Be Whipped.

From the Chicago Tribune.

The man in the street can understand one thing, at least. We have started something that we have to finish. That is a plain enough axiom of everyday life. We have to win or be whipped. There is no question about that, and no need of explaining it.

Give Until It Bites.

From the Chicago Herald.

The business of those who stay at home, who neither fight nor direct, is one of the most difficult. It is to steadily give what you can, and to be comfortable compared with trench living, and safe. But it is necessary. Just because we are muddling now this war will cost us all the more. Well, give it; give it freely, as it is asked; give it not as you give to a beggar but as you give to your child. Give till it bites. Give as they have given in Europe—in France, in England, in Germany.

Civilization vs. Barbarism.

From the Washington Post.

The war against the German Government is not a kind of war. It is not the war of statesmen. It is not the war of the President of the United States. It is the war of civilization against organized and vicious barbarism. There has been nothing to conceal, so far as the cause of the United States and the Allies is concerned. Before the war some of the most grievous aggressions of German against the United States, some of her greatest atrocities, were concealed lest the anger of the nation might burst all bounds.

A War Against War.

From the New York Commercial.

If Germany wins this war, or even gains an inconclusive peace that leaves her free to maintain her military establishment, the whole world will remain an armed camp until in the end a more conclusive war either makes a German Emperor master of the world as were the Roman Caesars for two hundred years, or establishes worldwide democracy such as we are now striving to set up on the ruins of Prussianism. This is a war against war to secure a lasting peace and no American citizen can refrain from doing his bit to win it without incurring the brand of traitor upon his brow.

Dominions and Foreign Policy.

From the London Daily Telegraph.

The Dominions are rightly resolved to have some say in the conduct of a foreign policy which may involve them as well as Great Britain in war. The method found has been by way of admission to the Cabinet, and Lord Curzon the other day told the country that at the last meeting of the Imperial War Conference the Prime Minister made a formal offer to the representatives of the Dominions and of India that "the members of the Imperial Cabinet should be an annual institution, to be convened, whether the conditions were those of peace or war, to consider questions of Imperial relations, Imperial interests, and Imperial defense."

THE SILENT TOAST.

They stand with reverent faces.

And their murmured give o'er.

As they drink the toast to the unseen host.

Who have fought and gone before.

It is only a passing moment

In the midst of the feast and song;

But it grips the breath as the wing of death

In a vision sweeps along.

No more they see the banquet.

And the brilliant light around;

But they charge again on the hideous plain

When the shell-bursts rip the ground.

Or they creep at night, like panthers,

Through the waste of No Man's Land.

Their hearts are with a wild desire,

And death on every hand.

And out of the roar and tumult.

Or the black night loud with rain.

Some face comes back on the fiery track

And looks in their eyes again.

And the love that is passing women's

And the bonds that are forged by death.

Now grip the soul with a strange control

And speak what no man saith.

The vision dies off in the stillness.

Once more the tables shine.

But the eyes of all in the banquet hall

Are lit with a light divine.

During the evening there will be dancing for everyone.

On the flat behind the Lac la Biche Inn there have been for several days tepees and tents of the natives in anticipation of this great event, and the Indian ponies are already exercised and kept in fine fettle for the races in which the "braves" expect to bring home the bacon; in other words, win all the prizes. THE CALIFORNIA DANCING GIRLS in "The Breath of a Rose" at the Pantages Theatre the last five afternoons and evenings this week

Behind the Footlights

What the Advance Man says.

VARIETY PROGRAM AT PANTAGES

A bill of fare of a varied description is submitted for the entertainment of patrons of Pantages this week and "The Alluring Dancing Carnival," as it is described, "Birth of a Rose," is certainly a mélange of "terpichorean achievement" if nothing else. The habiliments are certainly of the "September Morn" variety.

Nelson and Nelson give a pretty good good acrobatic and eccentric turn on stilts and get plenty of applause.

Harry Godfrey and Veta Henderson offer a sketch called "Catskill, New York," of just about so-so merit. Eddie Kane and Jay Herman present a highly edifying affair described as "The Midnight Sons" in "A Rag Time Cocktail." The twain impersonate a couple of intoxicated young rounders, with duplex vision and obfuscated mentalities who meet before a drop scene representing the New York sky-scrapers in company with a "but" laden with various kinds of drinkables.

For a wind-up comes Charlie Albarn, in the conventional make-up of a stage tramp, heading a comedy cycling act in which bicycles, stage locomotives, automobiles, a traveling cabaret on wheels and a miscellaneous assortment of knock-about artists keep the action going at a dizzy speed until it is time to go home. One can't help laughing at the stuff they pull off and the act has the merit that it isn't suggestive and it isn't profane.

The always interesting moving picture reviews deal, as usual with military preparations in the United States and was evidently prepared for American consumption. The camera work is exceptionally well done.

on the book, though there is no change in the story. Director S. Andrew Drew has given the characters parts to which they are undoubtedly best suited, and this is especially true of Anita Stewart, a mere slip of a lass, a wholesome, brightly charming wood violet. How else can one typify the radiating spirit of joy and naturalness—imbuing all her portrayals with the subtle quality of soul—Miss Stewart's characterization of "The Girl Philippa" reaches the highest point of her dramatic achievements, and they have been many. She has beauty—she has poise—she has magnetism. She is dainty in manner, poised in action and finished in production. Her wide range and subtle delicate emotions—her ability to register her feelings and thoughts so as to convey them across the screen, her rare grace of body and her fine chiselled features not only make her the ideal Philippa but a most typical heroine. Robert W. Chambers in his novel has taken an atmosphere charged with secret agents, society intrigues and oppressive blood lust and woven it into a magic spell of genius. There is a wealth of colorful detail—the master touches of a master craftsman—and the entire super-photodrama actually radiates the life and spirit of humanity. "The Girl Philippa" is as fragrant as the wild rose. Its tempo is that of a galloping gun. Its story plays the music of the heart.

"HER BETTER SELF" RICH IN SETTINGS; COMPANY EXCELLENT

Photoplay devotees who like Pauline Frederick, who has been seen on the Monarch screen many times in varied films will like "Her Better Self," the feature at the local home of Paramount. It is not a particularly novel idea, but the acting of Miss Frederick and that sterling actor, Thomas Meighan, and the settings and the gowns are of such outstanding excellence that the Monarch should be crowded this week by fans who like this sort of thing with their photoplays.

Miss Frederick has the role of Vivian, an imperious but charmingly spoiled daughter of wealthy parents who are trying to persuade her to marry Baron Helke. Young Dr. Keith, an enthusiastic charity worker, comes to their house for dinner one evening for the purpose of getting a handsome subscription. There he meets Vivian, and the two are instantly attracted to each other. The man, however, realizing the difference in their lives tells her they can never marry, as she could not endure even a week of his life.

MAJESTY—Savory daylight was no foe with Jack Tempest. He worked under entirely contrary impulses—he spent his days in sleep and his nights in getting rid of the fortune he had inherited. So well did he accomplish his purpose that he finally was compelled to go to work—to go to bed at 10 and arise to the sound of a booming alarm-clock at 6 in the morning. Then events of vast importance in Jack's young life began to happen—and happen fast. To see and enjoy it all in Bluebird photoplays is the treat offered patrons of the Majestic theatre for the last time today when "The Clock" is to be presented with Franklin Farnum playing the role of Jack Tempest and Agnes Vernon impersonating the girl that brought about the transformation of the spendthrift youth to a prosperous and wealthy business man.

PESSIMISTIC AS TO GERMAN HARVEST

Crops For 1917 Will Be Only Of Moderate Value Unless Miracle Happens.

The Hague, June 24, via London, June 25.—The New Rotterdamse Courant publishes a pessimistic report on the prospective harvest of northwestern Germany as follows: "For cattle especially, the outlook is decidedly bad—probably even worse than the people at present believe. Concerning the human food supply we remain silent; everyone knows that things are painted rose color. But the shortage of potatoes, fats and oils is tremendous." The newspaper then asserts that the harvest of 1917 will be of only moderate volume unless a miracle happens; that the hay crop is of good quality, but that except for lying fields, it is lacking in quantity and dried up, and that no second crop is expected. Cattle are suffering severely and are already being driven into the hay fields. Wheat crops, however, look good, and the grain harvest is expected to be fairly good, although the rye is thin and poor, presumably for lack of good fertilizer. Potato vines are yellow and wilted, owing to the drought, and new potatoes are small.

MACHINE GUNS USED ON SINN FEINERS

Brought Into Action After Police Had Failed to Restore Order

Cork, June 25.—Machine guns were used on the Sinn Feiners in the disturbances here yesterday morning. They were brought into action after the police, with clubs, had failed to restore order. The soldiers cordoned various points while the police chased the rioters to side streets. After having borne much stoning, the police ordered that guns be fired on the disturbers. One rioter was killed and another severely wounded, while a dozen were treated in hospitals for bayonet and other wounds. The riot was eventually quelled without the troops coming into action.

PROSECUTION WITHDRAWN OF EX-MINISTERS

Owing To Ill Health Two Defendants' Case Allowed To Drop.

WINNIPEG, June 25.—Owing to the continued ill-health of Sir Rodmond Roblin and the even worse physical condition of another of the defendants, the crown today entered a motion to discontinue the prosecution in the case of the ex-ministers of Manitoba, who have been under indictment for months charged with conspiracy in connection with the Manitoba parliament buildings. The defendants, Sir Rodmond Roblin, George R. Coldwell and James H. Howden, were formally discharged by Mr. Justice Prendergast. At the last summer assizes they were first put on trial and the jury disagreed.

A. J. Andrews, counsel for the defence read to the court letters from Dr. Barker and Dr. R. Richards, of Winnipeg, stating that the health of Sir Rodmond was precarious and that he was in no condition to stand the strain of a trial. Mr. Andrews stated that it was only fair to say that one of the other defendants was in even worse physical condition than Sir Rodmond. If the trial was to proceed, he said, it should go on now, he said, since it was not likely that the health of the defendants would improve, especially with a trial pending. R. A. Bonnar, for the crown, said he had taken the matter up with the attorney-general. He was convinced of the truth of the statements made by Mr. Andrews. A grave responsibility rested on the crown in the event of the trial proceeding and anything happening, and it had been decided to leave the matter to the judge.

Mr. Justice Prendergast said that if the crown desired to enter application for a nolle prosequi it would meet with his approval. Mr. Bonnar made the formal motion, which was granted.

His lordship said it was the first time the matter of no further prosecution had been mentioned to him, and he formally discharged the ex-ministers, who shook hands with their counsel and left the court room.

"THE CRISIS" OPENS WITH MATINEE AT EMPIRE THEATRE

EMPIRE—William N. Selig, producer of "The Crisis," which will be shown at the Empire all this week starting with a matinee today, has the distinction of having produced the first multiple picture play. It is a story of the life of Christopher Columbus, and it won for him a decoration from the Vatican at Rome. Mr. Selig then turned out in succession, "Cinderella," "The Spiders," "The Rosary," and "The Nerve Do Well," in addition to the numerous smaller photoplays released on regular schedules. Each of his big features added to the fame of Mr. Selig and the Selig studios, making the name a standard in the rapidly growing art. Finally, all the energies of Mr. Selig, Director Colin Campbell, and a group of stars picked from the three immense Selig Polyscope studios, were concentrated on "The Crisis," and the new work has eclipsed all the former features as completely as "The Coming of Columbus" eclipsed the toy pictures that had been produced before it. Mr. Selig has the distinction of being the only big producer in the business who has never turned out a failure along the line of massive dramas.

Miss Eugenie Besserer, who plays Mrs. Price in "The Crisis," has won the sobriquet of "the Ellen Terry of the screen," not only because of the excellence and finish of her acting, but more because of her really remarkable power of altering her looks to enter into the particular character she is portraying. She has the faculty, as rare in screenland as in the realm of the spoken drama, of changing her age. In the Selig studios, she has played in various productions, the daughter, sweetheart, mother, wife, aunt and grandmother to the same leading man.

PACKED HOUSE SEES "THE GIRL PHILIPPA"

Anita Stewart was never so beautiful, so charming or so thorough and like a character as she is in Philippa, in "The Girl Philippa," a dramatization of Robert Chambers' novel of the same name, a Vitaphone production which opened a four days' engagement at the Empress theatre yesterday, incidentally in a packed house. As a book "The Girl Philippa" is known wherever the English language is read; it was one of the best sellers of a year and had a big run at the Edmonton book stores. The photodrama is an improvement

Vivian wishes to make the test and goes to his sanatorium to help and mingle with his co-workers. She finds the work hard and disagreeable but does not give up. But that evening, after attending a session of the night court where Keith has rescued a girl, work with hunger and illness, she slips up the stairs and goes back to her home, leaving a note for Keith.

It is not the hardship that has driven her to this step but the finding of a picture of Keith in a locket on the girl he rescued, who was a waitress in his boarding house years before and stole the picture from his room. Keith is heart-broken and does not understand her motive. Vivian's mind gives a brilliant reception to announce her daughter's engagement to the Baron, who urges an early wedding.

Just as Vivian is making her decision about this, Keith telephones and she goes to him to try again. By some trick of fate, she arrives at the sanatorium just as Aggie, the waitress, is pleading with Keith to save her from a pal she fears. Vivian, again believing Keith is in love with the girl, glides from the room, dropping her cloak as she goes. Returning for it, she witnesses the suicide of Aggie, but is too late to interfere. Keith in the meanwhile has gone to his study and locked himself in. A nurse, finding Aggie's dead in her room, and going in search of Keith, discovers this. The police, hastily summoned, believe Keith guilty as all the evidence seems to point that way. Keith himself dazed, thinks only of Vivian and how to shield her as he fears she will be implicated.

Vivian learns of this only by accident for she has been taken to the country to recover her broken health and spirits. Quickly sending for her fastest motor and breaking all speed laws, she goes to the rescue of the man she loves. She arrives barely in time to save his life and as the foreman of the jury announces "Not Guilty," Keith takes her in his arms.

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE TO BE RE-ORGANIZED

Meeting Will Be Held Tuesday Night To Elect Officers—Monday's Game.

The Edmonton Intermediate Baseball league will be reorganized at a meeting in the Borden clubrooms Tuesday night. At a meeting held before the league was opened a temporary organization was formed and it is proposed to elect officers at the coming meeting.

Gordon Smart has been mentioned as president, and it was stated to The Bulletin, he has signified his willingness to donate a cup for competition. It is understood that Umpire Drayton will be officially appointed as umpire for the league.

On Monday night the Capitals and Northwest Biscuit Co. teams played on Diamond Park. The grounds were very muddy and it was found necessary to make certain ground rules. The Capitals were the victors by the score of 10 to 2. The game was called on account of darkness.

Taking the entire game into consideration it was well played, but the Capitals broke away in the fifth and took a big lead. For three innings the score stood at 2 to 2. Montfield and Tidbury were the batters for the Capitals. This is the first time the Biscuit boys have been beaten.

Lost Two Games
BROOKLYN, N. Y., June 25.—Brooklyn took another double-header from Boston here today, winning by scores of 3 to 2 and 4 to 2. Rudolph was hit hard in the first game, but his defeat was due to an error by Massey in the ninth inning. In the second inning Cheney was invincible after the first inning, while the champions hit Tyler steadily.

Are Now Leaders
PHILADELPHIA, June 25.—Philadelphia not only defeated New York 2 to 0 today but also took first place in the race from the visitors. Rixey pitched a wonderful game, allowing his opponents only two singles, one of which was due to Robertson's fast running on an infield grounder, and giving only one base on balls. New York player got past first base.

LEWIS DEFEATS JACK BRITTON IN TWENTY ROUNDS

DAYTON, Ohio, June 25.—Ted Lewis wrosted the welterweight crown from Jack Britton here tonight, winning on a decision by Referee Lou Bauman of Cincinnati at the end of twenty rounds. Britton scored a knockdown in the last round, but it did not offset the lead Lewis had won in the earlier part of the match.

Lewis was credited with winning seven rounds, the second, seventh, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, fourteenth and fifteenth. Britton had a shade the best of the going in the eighth, thirteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth, nineteenth and twentieth. The others were even. Referee Bauman's decision was not the popular verdict, many believing that the champion's strong finish and the short fight and left jab to the jaw that sent Lewis to his knees in the twentieth round balanced the Englishman's early scoring.

Sporting Facts and Fancies

When it comes to fielding, you've got to hand it to the White Sox. If these same gentlemen will look to their batting and do a little better in that very necessary branch of the game, there may be a nice little pennant hanging in their back yard at the end of the season.

And then there's old Peck, known as Mr. Peckinpah when he has his stripes on. He certainly is a ne plus ultra, nonpareil, par excellence short stop this year and in conjunction with Baker and Hendryx is doing the heavy playing for the Yankees.

Hans Wagner's importance to the Pirates is seen more clearly every day. He seems to steady the whole team, for one thing, and then, for another, ask the man who takes in the money at the gate, and he'll tell you that Hans is a big drawing card.

One of the surprises of the season is Bert Nichoff. He had practically no training this Spring because he refused to go south on account of a hitch in matters of salary. Despite this fact he is playing a star game. So you see, it all depends upon the individual.

If ever a man was proud over what he considered a find, it's Hughie Jennings, the find in his case being Carroll Jones, a young pitcher. Jennings is convinced that Jones has the makings of a star moundman in him. Where have we heard that line of stuff before?

The fear is growing that Smoky Joe Wood will never be able to pitch again. The old strain that recently came back will not disappear and Wood is, of course, disconsolate. He has already made it known that, if his pitching days are over, he will consider Physicians who have been observing the former star moundman declare that he should not have been permitted to pitch more than one or possibly two innings at practice and so gradually work him into the game again. Instead of undertaking to pitch an entire game, as he did when he finally developed anew his old arm trouble, Lee Pohl feels very kindly toward Wood, whom he credits with having broken in many a young pitcher. So it looks as if Woods will be kept on the salary list even if he can't pitch.

Today In Pugilistic Annals
1905—Jack Johnson outpointed Jack Monroe in one of the liveliest six round bouts ever seen in Philadelphia.

1908—Jimmy Walsh defeated Jimmy Carroll in eleven rounds at San Francisco.

1909—Sam McKay won on a foul from Jim Barry in the fifteenth round at Paris.

1909—Dick Hyland knocked out Leach Cross in forty-one rounds at Colma.

JOE GRIFFIN TO JUDGE AT COMING CALGARY DOG SHOW

Well Known Edmonton Fancier Selected To Fill Bill At Exhibition.

Joe Griffin, of Edmonton, has been selected to judge at the dog show to be held in conjunction with the Calgary exhibition. It had been intended to have a judge from the east, but as the Calgary show is being held under Dominion kennel club rules and as the Canadian Kennel club has issued a ukase against any of its members judging at shows promoted under the D.K.C., the western organization, the change became compulsory. Competitors, however, will not suffer any disadvantage through it. Mr. Griffin's name is widely known as an expert adjudicator of canine qualities, and the fact that he has been selected to fill the position at Calgary should ensure a numerous entry.

Adventures of Uncle Wiggily

By Howard R. Goss

Uncle Wiggily and Father William

Copyright, 1917, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

One morning, soon after he finished his breakfast, having taken his red, white and blue striped barber pole rheumatism crutch down from behind the clock, Uncle Wiggily Longears, the rabbit gentleman, started out from his hollow stump bungalow. There were quite a few friends of Alice in Wonderland whom he had not yet met, and he hoped to have an adventure with one of them. So, tossing up in the air his tall silk stove-pipe hat, and letting it bounce three times on the end of his pink, twinkling nose, Uncle Wiggily hurried off. The rabbit gentleman had not gone very far, over the fields and through the woods, before he saw something very strange indeed. This was what seemed to be a funny sort of flower vase, with two things sticking up in it, and on the end of them were two shoes.

"My goodness me, makes alive and some chocolate cake pudding!" cried the surprised bunny uncle. "What's this?" Then, as he looked again, he saw a tummy face, and a pair of bright eyes looking at him from the bottom part of what had seemed to be a flower vase.

"Why, it's a man!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "Of course I'm a man," was the jolly answer. "But don't be afraid of me; I'm not a hunter man."

"And you're not standing on your head?" went on Uncle Wiggily, more surprised than ever. "Of course I'm standing on my head," said the funny man.

"Do that to make things come out as they do in the Alice in Wonderland book. I'm Father William, you know," and with that he gave a nimble spring, turned a back somersault, putting himself right side up, and began to recite this verse:

"You are old, Father William, the Young Man said,
And your hair has become very white,
But yet you incessantly stand on your head,
Do you think, at your age, that is right?"

"But is it?" asked Uncle Wiggily quickly, as soon as funny Father William had ceased speaking. "Of course it is," was the answer. "Otherwise it wouldn't be in the book and I wouldn't do it. At first it can easily manage. And you'll find you get quite a different view of things, looking at them upside down as I do every now and then," he went on.

"I wonder if I could stand on my head?" spoke Uncle Wiggily. "Try it," said Father William. "I'd like to," went on the bunny uncle. "But I might crush my tall silk hat."

"Take it off," suggested Father William. "Yes, I could do that. But suppose some one were to see me?" asked the bunny. "It would look sort of queer."

"No one will see you here behind the trees," spoke Father William. "Besides, if they do, learning to stand on one's head is very useful. There is no telling when you may want to do it at home."

"That's so," agreed Uncle Wiggily. "Well, I'll try."

At first he couldn't stand up on his head at all, just turning over in a sort of flip-flop every time he tried. But at last Father William held up the bunny rabbit by the heels, and then Uncle Wiggily did it better. After a while he could stand straight, right side up, on his hind paws, give a little wiggle, and then he was standing on his head, with his silk hat twirling around on his upper paws. And Father William could do the same thing.

If you had happened to walk through the woods when Uncle Wiggily and Father William, who had a little holiday from the Alice book, were standing on their heads, surely you would have laughed.

"And now that I have learned a new trick, I must go look for an adventure," said the bunny. "I'll go with you," spoke Father William. Together they went along through the woods, and over the fields, and, all of a sudden, from behind a current lam bush, out jumped a bad, old, double-jointed skilley scalcary al-ligator.

"Ah, ha!" cried the alligator. "At last I have caught some one to whom I can do it! Ah, ha!"

"Do what?" asked Uncle Wiggily, while Father William looked around for a place to hide. "What are you going to do?"

"Tickle your feet!" was the surprising answer. "I am the ticklish alligator, and feet I must tickle! Get ready now, here I come!"

"Oh, dear!" cried Father William. "I never can bear to have my feet tickled. For, when that happens I

Famous Women

Helen Keller, Deaf Mute Marvel

Helen Keller, the fact that she is a deaf mute, will tomorrow celebrate her 37th birthday. She was born at Tuscumbia, Ala., on June 27, 1880. She is descended on her father's side from Alexander Spotswood, who was colonial governor of Virginia before the revolution. On her mother's side she is related to the Adams and Everet families of New England, which have given so many men of genius to the service of the United States. Miss Keller's early education was at the Radcliffe college. She graduated from that institution in 1904 with the degree of B. A. Since then she has written several books and has been a frequent contributor to magazines. Her greatest work is undoubtedly her "Story of My Life," an autobiography such as the world has never seen before. Her other well-known works are "The World I Live In," and an essay on "Optimism." When George R. Lunn, the socialist, was Mayor of Schenectady, N.Y., he appointed Miss Keller a member of his board of public welfare, on which she did great service for the people of that community.

Little Stories of Big Men

Goethals, Builder of Big Things

Major General George Goethals, builder of the Panama canal, is at the present time wrestling with the problem of building ships to carry American products to our allies faster than the U-boats can sink them. Gen. Goethals has wrestled with big problems before this and he knows just how and when to tackle them. So the ship problem is safe in his hands. George Washington Goethals was born in Brooklyn on June 25, 1858, of Dutch parentage, and obtained his early education in the public schools. When 11 years old he secured employment as an errand boy and later became bookkeeper and cashier in a market. All this time he kept up his studies and entered the College of the City of New York in 1872. It was there that he became interested in military life. He wrote to General Grant seeking an appointment to the Military Academy at West Point. Receiving no reply, he interested "Sunset" Cox in his behalf and Mr. Cox secured the appointment for him. He entered West Point in 1874, graduated in 1878 and served in his class. He entered the engineering branch of the army and there he has remained ever since. When William Taft, as secretary of war, was selected in 1904 he took the then Major Goethals with him. In 1907 Goethals was placed in charge of the construction of the canal, with the rank of chief engineer, succeeding Theodore P. Shonts. Later he rose to the rank of colonel, and when the Panama canal was completed was made a major general and governor of the Canal zone. Shortly after the United States declared war on Germany Gen. Goethals was made head of the shipyard board, which has already begun its program of constructing several million tons of shipping.

Today's Anniversaries

The first record of an event of great importance on June 26th is for the year 44 B. C. It was then that the memorable conference took place between Brutus Cassius and Cicero at Antium.

On this day in the year 1541 Francisco Pizarro, the Spanish adventurer, was assassinated in his own palace by the friends of Almagro. Pizarro was then 48 years old.

And here is some positive proof that history repeats itself. It was on June 26, 1807, that the British issued an order in council blockading the river and the Baltic Sea. The difference was that Napoleon was then England's foe, while today those waters are blockaded against the Germans.

Barber Cured of Eczema

Generously Tells Others How Cure Was Effected.

Toronto, Ont., May 14th.—No one is better qualified to judge of treatment for skin troubles than the barber. He finds his customers bothered with barba's itch, pimples and eczema and has his own difficulties in treating these conditions after shaving.

Mr. Lewis learned from a customer about Dr. Chase's Ointment, and when he contracted eczema, applied this treatment with most satisfactory results. He is naturally enthusiastic now in recommending this ointment to any one suffering from similar skin troubles.

Mr. George Lewis, barber, 2024 Wellesley street, Toronto, writes: "I was for some time troubled with an eczema eruption on the scalp and obtained temporary relief by the use of a tonic. About six months later little blotches broke out on my face and the doctor pronounced the trouble to be eczema. I heard of Dr. Chase's Ointment cured by this treatment after trying many remedies in vain, so I began the use of this Ointment and in a short time the eczema entirely disappeared from my face and scalp. I shall take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Chase's Ointment to any customers with facial or other troubles of this nature."

Sidelights on the War

War Loans $33,113,000,000

The staggering sums being spent by the nations at war are mounting every day until the imagination can hardly grasp their import. Without even counting the Liberty Loan, recently raised in the United States, the sum spent in the prosecution of the great conflict up to the end of last March is $33,113,000,000. The loans of the entire allies are placed at $36,300,000,000, while those of Germany and Austria-Hungary, not including the sixth German loan, reported to have yielded about $3,000,000,000, are $18,800,000,000. The cost of the war to the individual nations is mounting daily, despite the fact that commodities are being bought comparatively cheaper than at the outset, when any sum was paid, just so long as deliveries could be made.
